Obituary of Benjamin F. Moore.

Benjamin F. Moore was born in Lawrence county, Pennsylvania, on July 10, 1834. At the age of seven he moved with his parents to Hancock county, Ohio.

On March 12, 1857, he was united in marriage to Caroline Baker. To them were born two children, Byron of West township, and Mrs. John Hoover of Goshen, Ind.

This family came to Marshall county in 1871, where they lived until Brother Moore laid his armor down. He united with the church of the Brethren in the year 1877, and so spent 34 years in active service for the Master in this church. About 23 years ago he was elected a deacon as deacon in the church of his choice, and it can be very truthfully said of him that he was always willing and ever anxious to do his duty, often doing more than was required of him.

Especially was he mindful of the poor and needy, many times lending a helping hand to bear the burdens and distresses of others. As a neighbor he could not be excelled. Being congenial and pleasant both old and young were happy in his presence.
He lived a good life, worthy of imitation and will be greatly missed.

He leaves to mourn their loss a devoted wife, two children, four grand children, four great grand children, one brother, two sisters and many other relatives and friends.

He departed this life at his home in West township on Sunday night,

Feb. 12, 1911, after a few days illness with pneumonia, at the age of 76 years, seven months and two days.
The funeral was held at the Union church on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 15, and was conducted by J. F.
Appelman and S. F. Hendricks.

Obituary.
Fredie Newton Linn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Linn, was born in Marshall county, Ind., March 10, 1889 and died at the home of his parents 7 miles northeast of Plymouth, Feb.
11 1911, aged 22 years, 1 month and 1 day. He was converted and baptized about three weeks before his death.

He leaves a father and mother, one brother and six sisters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. F. Pressnell, assisted by the Rev. S. A. Mow, at the Jacoby church three miles north east of Plymouth, Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 11:30 A. M. in the presence of a large and sympathizing audience.

Interment in the Jacoby cemetery.

In Memory of Comrade James M.
Heminger.
Again has the hand of death descended and stricken down one of our comrades from us, and he now "sleeps the sleep that knows no waking." The battle is over and our comrade is at rest with that innumerable company in the mansions beyond the mystic river, we trust it that better land where there is no more pain, nor suffering nor sorrow, but in the mansion of eternal bliss.
Our deceased comrade was a true husband, a true father, a true friend, at rue patriot, and a true soldier, and when that is said of a man, what else could be grouped into the human character to make it more sublime.
For his comrades his heart ever warmed in fraternity, charity and loyalty and his heart and hand were ever for the good.

Therefore, Resolved, that in the death of comrade James M. Heminger, our post has lost a worthy member the community a worthy, true, honorable and just citizen; his family a kind and generous husband and father; and to his bereaved wife and children we tender our most sincere sympathies and kindest conscience in this their greatest sorrow and deepest gloom.

Resolved, That, as a further testimony of respect to the memory of our deceased comrade, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of this post and a copy thereof be transmitted to his bereaved wife.

versation and singing. Emory Miller

Will Have Gas Service
The Gas Company Monday installing gas in the room on the first floor of the Methodist church used by the Ladies Aid Society as the kitchen.
It will be used exclusively for cooking purposes. This has long been needed and wished for by the Ladies Aid. The Episcopal and Presbyterian churches have made the same improvement this month.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar which checks cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal Mo., says, "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me. No opiates, just a reliable household medicine."

Marriage License

der, 23 both of Argos.

HEARING BIG CASE

H. A. Logan is Special Judge in Suit Bessie Fretz of Rochester vs Chicago & Erie.

A big case is on in the Marshall circuit court which will take all the remainder of this week and possibly more. It is that of Bessie Fretz of Rochester against the Chicago & Erie Railway Co., for damages for injuries received in a runaway some years ago.

The following jury was selected and sworn this morning:

Willis Thornburg, Louis Zechiel, Wm. B. Steel, Levi Knepp, John A.
Hawk, Chas. Dettbrenner, Jos. K.
Bartz, John T. Cook, Wm. L. Scott, Perry Smith, Wm. F. Sult, and Alva Crites.

Attorney H. A. Logan had been chosen special judge to hear this important case.

Miss Fretz was driving with a young man when at a railway crossing the horse was struck by a freight train alleged to be running at the rate of 35 miles an hour. The horse was killed, the buggy demolished and Miss Fretz dragged for an eighth of a mile. For the injuries she asks $15,000. In the former trial of the case here in December 1907, Miss Fretz was given $7,000 damages, but the Appellate court reversed the decision and granted a new trial to the railway company.

The attorneys representing Miss Fretz are S. N. Stevens of this city and Metzler of Rochester, and the attorneys for the defendant are Burl and Thompson, the Railroad attorneys, Mr. Holman of Rochester and W. B. Hess of this city.

TALKS ABOUT CIGARETTES Jas. J. Jeffreys Representing the Anti Cigarette League Lectures to City Schools.

James J. Jeffreys, representing the Anti-Cigarette League, gave very interesting talks to the grades of the Washington School building Wednesday afternoon, on the "Evils of Cigarette Smoking." He spoke of the degrading effect of tobacco to children and was given the closest attention throughout. Mr. Jeffreys has been lecturing in the largest cities in Indiana, and the Plymouth schools are fortunate in securing him. He lectured to the High School students at the Assembly period this morning.

Men Will Banquet.
The men of St. Thomas Episcopal church will banquet at the Plymouth Inn next Monday night. Rev.
Father Averill of Ft. Wayne will be the chief speaker and a number of local men will also address the banqueters.

Contracts Let.
W. C. Curtis has let the contracts for his new home which is to be completed in August. It will be on the corner of Michigan and North streets. The carpenter's contract has been let to Ness and the plumber's contract to Klingerman.

Good for Plymouth Too.
South Bend, Ind., Feb. 16.—Ten thousand school children of South Bend, have been organized into "clean street leagues," in a movement to make South Bend the cleanest city in the United States. To encourage the work, the chamber of commerce will offer prizes to the leagues for the best results. Individual prizes will also be awarded to the pupils. The campaign will begin early in the spring.

Although an M. D., I acknowledge to my patients and patrons that your remedy, D. D. D., reaches cases of Eczema and permanently cures them.—Dr. Ira T. Gabbert, "My cure began from the first application of D. D. D. My skin is now as smooth as a baby's. I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for what D. D. D. has done for me," writes August Santo, of Chillicothe, Ohio.

These are just samples of letters we are receiving every day from grateful patients all over the country.

"Worth its weight in gold," "All my pimples washed away by D. D.

D. D. is little short of miraculous." These are the words of others in describing the great skin remedy,

MUD! MUD! MUD! UP TO THE HUB! AWFUL ROADS!

WORST HIGHWAYS MARSHALL COUNTY HAS EXPERIENCED
FOR MANY A YEAR—MUCH INCONVENIENCE

WANT BETTER ONES?

Ask the Man Who Drives Ten Miles To Town and Back the Same Day—He Will Say, "Wall
I Guess."

"Our roads are impassable—Not even jackassable;
Why don't the people who travel
'em
All turn out and gravel 'em?"

Thus broke forth a southern Indiana editor a few years ago when the patience and also the muscle of his countrymen was well nigh exhausted in wailing through the mire of the most miserable roads of the modern time.

Just now Marshall county is having a taste of the same thing. Everywhere—except of course on paved streets or well graveled roads—the story is told by the expression Mud!
Mud! Mud! up to the hub is the usual experience. There seems to be no bottom to the roads, says one.
Haven't seen the like of it for years, says another.

Liverners are refusing to let their teams go out except at almost double the price and sometimes refuse to let them go at all, on account of the extremely bad condition of the highways. North, south, east and west the story is the same. Dr. H. A.
Myers made a phenomenal trip yesterday, going about eighteen miles.
No hauling is attempted—it takes a four horse team to pull an empty buggy.

The extremely warm weather, which let all the frost get out of the ground, the melting of a heavy snow and the recent rains have all conspired together to make the present awfulness of the roads. Not much relief can be expected until it freezes.

Do the people want better roads in the county? Perhaps. Now is a good time to ask the man who drives ten miles to town.

CITY PAYS COSTS.
No Danger Anyone Signing Petition for Election Will be Called to Pay Anything.

The erroneous contention of some that those who sign the petition for a local option election in Plymouth will have to pay the costs if they are defeated should be put at rest by the following paragraph from the new option law, which provides that the city must pay for the costs:

Sec. 11. In all elections hereunder and in all matters and proceedings not herein otherwise specified, all the provisions, including penalties, of the general election laws of the state shall apply as far as the same are applicable. When an election is held under the provision of this act in any incorporated city all expenses of such election shall be paid by such incorporated city; when an election is held under the provisions of this act in any township outside of any incorporated city or cities there in, all expenses of such election shall be paid by such township. The auditor of the county in which the petition for such election was filed shall file with the clerk or controller of such incorporated city, or with the township trustee of such township, as the case may be, an itemized statement of the expenses of such election, setting forth the names of each person to whom the same are payable, and such expenses shall be paid out of the general fund of such city or township, as the case may be, without any specific appropriation being made therefor.

Speedy Relief from Kidney Trouble.
"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich.
"A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy."

Receives Third Degree
The Blue Lodge of the Masonic Order conferred the Third degree on S. A. Bankert of this city Monday evening. After the initiation, those present enjoyed a smoker.
